Introduction

Welcome to your in-depth Life Path and Destiny report Albert.

The following Life Path and Destiny report is an astrological chart based on the mathematically precise positions of the planets and the Sun & Moon at the time, date and place of your birth. It provides you with insights into your character and personal life potentials by indicating the strengths you have and the challenges you experience in life.

This in-depth report covers among other things your primary motivation in life, your identity, emotions, mentality, love and sexuality, spirituality, earning ability and career potentialities and so on.

In some parts of the report you will come across apparent contradictions in the descriptions of your character. This is to be expected; people are complex and have many contradictory facets to their personality.

Mathematicians have calculated that there is just a 1 in 46,656,000 chance of someone sharing the same Degree of the zodiac for their Sun, Ascendant and Moon, so you really are unique in every sense of the world. Embedded within your natal chart is your own unique blueprint, your cosmic DNA that provides the key to unlocking your true potential and finding happiness and contentment along the way.

Overview of your Chart

The combination of Pisces Sun and Sagittarius Moon makes you a confident, progressive thinker, naturally inclined towards cutting edge thought. Your vision, foresight and expressiveness ensure that you are a great influence on those you come into contact with, and society as a whole. You think in broad terms, in either scientific or social matters. You are given to abstract thought, which with formal education elevates you to the upper echelons of thinkers in areas such as science, sociology and literature. You command respect and authority.

You are a highly expansive person but you need to be careful that you don't spread your energies too thinly. You need to focus on one area of expertise and master it. You sensitive, perceptive and possess an intuitive wisdom. Everything you do has a certain spiritual quality about it and you connect with symbols and symbolism on many levels. You are an idealist through and through and aim to contribute to the betterment of society on a grand scale.

The next step the astrologer takes is to split your birth chart into four equal quadrants down the meridian and along the horizon. By counting the number of planets in each quadrant it is possible to gain more insight into your future prospects.

If the upper two quadrants (i.e. above the horizon) contains a larger number of planets as it does in your case, then this suggests you are an outgoing and objective person who has the capacity to easily rise above the position they were born to and will do well in their chosen career.

The planets on the left hand side of your natal chart wheel are called 'Rising' planets and the planets on the right hand side of your chart wheel are called 'Setting' planets.

You have a predominance of rising planets (i.e. on the left side of your chart wheel) which indicates that you are a person with a strong free will who will be in charge of your life. This kind of placement is often referred to as a sowing incarnation; your focus will be on work, on initiating projects and creating momentum.

The Special Aspect Patterns Within your Chart

One of the most notable patterns within this natal chart is the T-square which is indicated in red in the above diagram. This incorporates an opposition between the expansive Jupiter in the Ninth House (Higher education, dreams and challenge) and the radical Uranus in the third house (Communication and mental aptitude) in the air signs of intellectual and inventive sign of Aquarius and meticulous and analytical Virgo. These two planets then create a square to a third planet, in this case the planet of eruptive change, Pluto which is stationed in determined sign of Taurus and the eleventh house, the house of altruistic intent.

When planets are linked in such a way their energy combines to create a powerful force that will dominate your life throughout your life and often overrides the affect of the individual aspects.

So in this case you have a combination of expansion, originality, Intellect, Invention, meticulousness, analysis and change all working together to create a powerful motivating energy within your chart. The themes of intellect (Uranus, Virgo and Jupiter) combines with consistent effort (Taurus and Virgo) to affect change (Uranus, Pluto) Pluto is particularly significant as it encourages you to overcome obstacles to affect the change that is needed.

One of your primary motivations in life is to use your intellect in radical and inventive ways to facilitate change.

A second triangular aspect is indicated in blue in your natal chart, which again, unites the three planets within it. In this case the triangle is composed of two sextiles between Pluto (change), your seventh house Mars (work and duty combined with energy and initiative) and the Sun (self expression) and a trine between Mars and Pluto. So again we see how you use your energy to express yourself through the change that you instigate through your work (seventh and tenth houses).

Marc Edmund Jones' Pattern Within your Chart

One of the astrological techniques I use when drawing up a persons birth chart was developed by the renowned astrologer Marc Edmund Jones is to analyse the distribution of planets around the Zodiac in your particular chart. The chart wheel contains important pointers that reveal specific elements of your personality. If you look at your chart wheel you will see that in your case the planets are distributed in a pattern that astrologers refer to as a 'Bucket'.

The 'Bucket' distribution shows all your planets posited in one part of the Zodiac, with the exception of one planet or a conjunction of planets on the opposite side and isolated. This indicates that most of your activities will focus around one area of your chart. The buckets 'handle'; that one planet that is separate from the rest often indicates a particular talent. Your handle lies within Virgo giving you amazing attention to detail and powerful analytical skills. Every facet of your life will be coloured by your analytical processes.

If you look at the diagram on the following page you will see that not only does Uranus representing discovery, invention and insight it in the intelligent and highly analytical Virgo but it actually has nine different planets aspecting it; energising and activating it with their own energy, demonstrating the importance of Uranus and Virgo in the natal chart.

Often when people read their natal charts they are unsure as to how it all fits together. The best way I can explain is that your Sun, Moon and Ascendant are the three components that combine to make 'you'; they form your basic character. The Aspects; squares, trines conjunctions and so on, that your chart highlights, are rather like snakes and ladders on the board game. Throughout the game of life you find harmonious aspects that help you and challenging aspects that force you to revisit parts of your life more than once, because there is a lesson that you need to learn in order to let your character grow and develop.

Finally, to close this introduction, I'd like to make one last observation that I hope you will bear in mind not just when reading this, but when considering any astrological influence in the future. Every chart reveals strengths and weaknesses, areas where we will find advantage, areas where we will find challenge and areas that just don't seem to resonate with us at all at this moment in time. (Remember a natal chart is intended to plot your entire life influences, rather than just your experiences up to this point, but it is up to you whether you make the most of these energies.)

Knowing and accepting your strengths and weaknesses is one of the greatest advantages you can have, because it will enable you to realise when and where you need to direct your energy.

I hope that you not only enjoy reading your character profile, but are able to make good use of it.

The Qualities and Elements

The signs of the zodiac are grouped into two basic categories. These are known as the Qualities and the Elements. The Qualities describe fundamental modes of activity and the Elements describe temperament. There are three Qualities: Cardinal, Fixed & Mutable and four Elements: Fire, Air, Earth & Water. Your horoscope has varying degrees of each Quality and Element. The percentages you have of each will determine their importance in your life. The higher percentages will be more powerful in your life, the lower percentages will be less powerful.

The Qualities

36% Cardinal

The Cardinal signs are Aries, Cancer, Libra & Capricorn, the greater number of planets you have in any of these signs the more 'Cardinal' you are. In your case, this is one of your dominant qualities, making you action oriented and excellent at initiating projects. You are interested in promoting change and bringing new things into the world. You are direct, assertive and like to take charge of situations. You are also ambitious, independent and dislike being supervised. You are good at starting projects, but not always so good at completing them. You have abundant enthusiasm and are very resourceful; you are not one to hold a grudge.

36% Fixed

The Fixed signs are Taurus, Leo, Scorpio & Aquarius, the more planets you have in any of these signs the more 'Fixed' you are. Looking at your natal chart the fixed quality is equal in strength to the cardinal quality. This contributes a persevering and enduring quality to your character – something that is often lacking in the Cardinal signs. You have the ability to follow your projects through to the end, no matter what obstacles come your way. You achieve results in life through determined and persistent effort. You may tend to do one thing at a time and are extremely practical in your approach to everything. You are not easily influenced by others and can be quite firm or stubborn once your mind are made up about something.

29% Mutable

The Mutable signs are Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius & Pisces. The more planets you have in these signs the more 'Mutable' you are. Although this is your weakest quality it is by no means under represented. You are flexible when the occasion demands it and are thus able to adapt and go with the flow. A natural mediator, you are sensitive to the opinions of others, but you can also be impressionable and easily influenced by environmental circumstances.

The Elements

36% Fire

The Fire signs are Aries, Leo & Sagittarius. The more planets you have in the Fire signs the more pro-active and self-determining you are. Fire is your dominant element, adding support to your cardinal quality. You seek freedom of action and power, striving for recognition in life. You are out-going and enthusiastic, adventure seeking and powerful. You are also ardent, passionate, assertive, demonstrative, bold and courageous. At times you can also be impatient and bossy, wilful and reactive, especially when you face delays or obstructions in your path.

29% Earth

The Earth signs are Taurus, Virgo & Capricorn. The more planets are positioned in the Earth signs the more practical and needful of security you are. You are down-to-earth, pragmatic, cautious, sensible and conservative and tend to seek material security. Hardworking and industrious, you are able to put your ideas and inspirations. There is a danger that at times you can be accumulative, possessive and overly materialistic.

21% Water

The Water signs are Cancer, Scorpio & Pisces. The higher the concentration of planets in these signs the more needful you are of emotional security. You water elements adds a need to gain security in your emotional life. You are sensitive, deep, compassionate, imaginative and intuitive. Your inner life and dream life are both very active. You are spiritually inclined and potentially psychic, with an ability to tune into others. Life is experienced as a mystical journey.

14% Air

The Air signs are Gemini, Libra & Aquarius. The more planets you have in the Air signs the more pro-active and self-determining you are. This is your weakest element, although it is by no means underrepresented. Air contributes a desire for freedom of action and freedom of movement to your personality. Mentally alert and intellectually stimulating, you are a conduit for communication and the exchange of ideas. Gregarious and sociable, you like to be around other people. You are observant and perceptive, curious and inquisitive.

The Kozminsky Symbols

The Kozminsky Symbols and short commentaries are by Isidore Kozminsky. Many eminent Astrologers suggest that the entire destiny of an individual is revealed in the degree symbolism found within the zodiac. The commentary is a clue to the meaning and an aid for your personal meditation.

The Kozminsky Symbols add a great deal of additional depth to the meaning and interpretation of your chart and are an invaluable esoteric tool for those who want to work on specific areas of their chart in an in-depth way (usually by meditation).

Of course it is entirely up to you whether or not you want to work with the Kozminsky Symbols, they are provided here to give you the option and the opportunity. If you would like to work with these symbols, then you need to relate the individual symbol to the attributes of the Planet or Point shown in the heading i.e. Mercury to mental qualities and so on. A glossary of terms is provided at the end of this document to facilitate this and help you gain a better overall understanding of astrology.

Sun in 24th degree of Pisces

A giant ape dragging a woman into the forests.

Denotes one who is in danger of becoming a slave to his desires and to sacrifice his higher self to the exhausting excesses which eat into body and soul. There is a wasting of energy and power in the pursuit of so called pleasure which deprives the native of that perfect idealistic happiness which is gained by sweet restraint and a knowledge of perfect love. It is a symbol of Falling.

Moon in 15th degree of Sagittarius

A painter at his easel in a forest upland, observing not the heavy black clouds which betray an approaching storm.

Denotes one of a refined and sensitive spirit capable of becoming so absorbed in his studies that he detaches himself from the world and its peoples. The love of nature and the beautiful is very great and may sever his sympathy from the ordinary routine of earthly desires and ambitions. He may obtain excellence in his sphere and some degree of honor, but there is a fatality connected with this degree which will claim him sooner or later. It is a symbol of Radiation.

Mercury in 4th degree of Aries

A mailed hand holding a dagger with a bent point.

Denotes one protected against external hurt, yet who, with a powerful desire for martial action in all affairs of life, may be tempted to use protective armor for offensive purposes, forgetting that the point of the dagger of aggression is blunted. Such a one needs to restrain impulse and to bestow thought and study on any contemplated action, then let him be sure that his dagger be true before he strikes.

It is a symbol of Misconception.

Venus in 17th degree of Aries

A beautiful woman, richly dressed, reclining on a couch, with fruits and golden vessels around her. At her hand, on an ornate table of white marble, lies an opened book.

Denotes a lotus-eater, a lover of pleasure, who delights in ease and the sweets of life. The fortunes are favored, but the native makes no personal effort to increase them. The mind is romantic and art-loving, and the form graceful.

It is a symbol of Luxury.

Mars in 27th degree of Capricorn

A woman, neatly dressed, seated on an old-fashioned chair, looking out of a cottage window on to a pretty little garden. Her face expresses pleasant contemplation.

Denotes one of a particularly kind and temperament, extremely thoughtful and a lover of men, animals, and nature, of sin-tastes and careful judgment. The native psychic powers and prophetic foresight regarding future events.

It is a symbol of Meditating.

Jupiter in 28th degree of Aquarius

A spire on top of a pyramid, at the base of which is a horse with a manuscript in his mouth.

Denotes one born for great deeds, aspiring and energetic. His work will travel far and will be of a strong and reformatory character, which will meet with the usual opposition afforded to such works amongst a certain caste. He must never stay. Ever with the symbol before his eyes must he continue his way, for victory is sure.

It is a symbol of Reformation.

Saturn in 5th degree of Aries

A feudal knight in full armor standing on the walls of his castle defying a multitude of armed people. A mysterious figure at the back of the crowd strikes a note on a curious six-stringed harp, the massive walls crumble and fall, and the defier is at the mercy of the defied.

Denotes one who is apt to place infinite reliance on materialistic things and to exult in the strength which their possession gives him over the masses of men. In the midst of his power a spiritual force, acting on invisible agencies and sending forth a note softer than the trumpet sounds of Jericho, may rudely disturb him. Then, if his soul truly awakes, the native becomes a valiant knight in the cause of enlightenment, but if the soul slumbers back again into the sludge of materialism, then will the native again place all his hopes on things that seem, and the defier will be truly at the mercy of the defied.

It is a symbol of False Security.

Uranus in 2nd degree of Virgo

A waning moon in a sky, half of which is clear and studded with stars, and half of which is covered with dark clouds which herald an approaching storm.

Denotes one of considerable ability who, as his life grows older, will be plunged into difficulties and trouble. It is well for one born in this degree to study his actions and to be scrupulously cautious as to his plans and movements. He should avoid speculative ventures, guard against deceit and treachery, and do all that is possible to lead an even, temperate life.
It is a symbol of Threatenings.

Neptune in 8th degree of Taurus

A leafless tree, on a plain, bending before a violent gale of wind, which whistles wildly through the branches.

Denotes one who meets with opposition, obstacles, and trouble who will be compelled to battle against adversity. Such a one should never take risks in anything, no matter how promising, but be content to work on in the very teeth of the enemy, remembering always that the strong are chosen to fight the battles of the weak.
It is a symbol of Impediment.

Pluto in 25th degree of Taurus

A dense column of smoke from which issue flashes of lightning.

Denotes one of natural talent who will be beset with difficulties in gaining recognition, but whose mental strength will be the more determined because of them. When his time comes his power will be felt. He will force acknowledgment by sheer ability and energy.
It is a symbol of Premeditation.

Moon's North Node in 3rd degree of Aquarius

A white-haired man, holding a cross before him, walking over a mosaic pavement.

Denotes one of a truly religious mind whose career will be as full of incident as the many pieces which go to make a mosaic pavement are full of color. Material life is not without its dangers-moral and physical-but the native is not born under the heel of fear. He sees beyond his times and bears his cross.
It is a symbol of Faithfulness.

Moon's South Node in 3rd degree of Leo

Ascendant

The Ascendant: Your Temperament & General Character.

Ascendant in Cancer

The Rising sign, often referred to as the ascendant, is the exact degree and sign of the zodiac that was just coming up over the eastern horizon at the moment that you were born. Along with your Sun and Moon, sign, it is one of the most important elements of your birth chart. It serves to establish a basic pattern in your life.

While your Sun sign establishes your character; your Rising sign determines the face you show the world; it is the mask we all wear. The energies of the ascendant are most obvious to others; revealing your initial and natural reactions to new people or situations..

Your primary motivation in life is to feel emotionally secure. You are sensitive and emotional; however you can also be over-sensitive and easily hurt by people. You are receptive to the needs of others and have a natural desire to care for or protect people. Family and domestic matters are always important to you and your home is your retreat and sanctuary. At times, you are susceptible to changeable moods, irritability and touchiness.

The Cancer Ascendant endows you with a sympathetic, idealistic and sensitive nature capable of a great deal of emotional warmth. You come across to others as a gentle, caring, unassuming person who is sensitive to their environment.

You are a generally quietly confident person; there is a need for domesticity and a happily family life where your nurturing quality can find expression. Emotional experiences are all important and on occasion they may dominate your life for better or for worse. You are easily influenced by those whom you love or admire, but are apt to be more distant, reserved, and distrustful to those you do not know well or whom you dislike.

Your sensitive and occasionally timid nature makes you vulnerable to emotional pain. Your first instinct, when threatened or on unfamiliar ground, is to protect yourself, this means that you have a tendency to withdraw from potentially difficult situations rather than addressing them head on, however when you do chose to address problems directly you can be quite sharp, leaving people in no doubt that they have overstepped the mark in some way.

You will find that you attract people who need care, understanding and encouragement due to the fact that you are both sympathetic and empathetic; you possess an instinctive affinity with children. You have an innate desire to nurture and support others but need to recognise that you are easily affected by the energy and emotions that you come into contact with; these energies can be both uplifting and draining depending on the circumstances. You should avoid being tempted to take on the worries of the world.

Cancer rising is often business minded, making you ambitious and dedicated. With persistence and through careful strategic planning, you are able to run your own business. This owes much to your sensible approach to life and your instinctive appreciation of what people want. You are cautious and not inclined to make the first move until you are sure of your ground. Indeed you have a practical, cautious yet determined attitude to all your business matters.

Self-realisation comes through the understanding and integration of your emotionally perceptive nature; you make sense of life through your feelings and emotions. You will be gifted with strong intuitions, and even psychic leanings. You have an active imagination and often live the past over again in your mind or anticipate and imagine the future. You live a good deal in the senses, and at times can be restless and prone to mood swings. There is often great patience and perseverance with this ascendant, and you are likely to accomplish whatever you set out to do, moving effortlessly with the constant ebb and flow of life.

Since you have Capricorn on the Descendant you will look for structure and security in your relationships. Security is your fundamental requirement. Other qualities lacking to some degree, which may be found in your partner are ambition and the capacity for sustained hard work.

Midheaven

The Midheaven: Your Career & Social Status.

Midheaven in Pisces

The Medium Coeli (MC), or Midheaven as it is more popularly known, is at the top of the chart wheel on the cusp of the 10th house. One of the most important angles in the birth chart, the M.C indicates your career, status, aim in life, aspirations, public reputation, and your life goal. The M.C reveals the image you have of yourself and where you strive to realise your full potential; particularly with regard to your career. The Midheaven shows you what you need to do with your life in order to grow; defining the externalisation of the self.

You are very responsive to outside influences and usually happy to go with the flow. The two main elements that you will look for in a career are a calm and peaceful environment and the need to help others; to be of service to them in some way. Ideally your job will combine both of these factors. Working in seclusion where your need for a quiet and controlled environment is fulfilled will always appeal to you. Your nature is rather reserved and inclined to seek solitude; preferring to work unpretentiously, unobserved, peacefully or alone. You need regular time alone to rest and regain your sense of balance and harmony. You often become unsettled and agitated if your carefully planned schedule gets disrupted by people and circumstances beyond your control.

This placing of the M.C indicates that your career or area of responsibility in the world relates in some way to working to help people. This may involve working in education, perhaps in social work, government administration, hospitals, science, religion or astrology. Working as a dancer or in the arts will also appeal to you as you have very good intuitive perception, grace and artistic appreciation. Your intuition should be a major asset to your career if you allow yourself to use it to its full potential, any kind of spiritual work or healing work will suit you.

Your highest aspiration is spiritual realisation. This can be achieved through devotion, meditation, compassion and humility. You are receptive and responsive to the needs of others. Pluto

Pluto: Your Integration of Change, Elimination & Renewal.

Pluto in Taurus

Pluto has a very irregular orbit and can be in any one Sign from 14 to over 30 years. Though never passive, its influence though in a Sign is felt more on a collective than a personal level. Pluto tears down our habits and belief systems and replaces them with new ones; think of the impact of Hitler and Gandhi – two extremes of Pluto's ability to bring about radical and far reaching change across society as a whole.

Pluto's zodiac position reveals the area of society where total transformations will take place - often with far reaching consequences; rooting out basic imbalances and replacing it with something totally new. Pluto brings about the process of death and rebirth but this it is seldom painless and trouble free.
